31ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus approaches the end of his journey. He has already entered Jerusalem when a 'scribe', who is evidently well disposed, asks which is the greatest of the commandments of the Law. As interpreters of the Law, the scribes had listed 613 ordinances calling for observance; it is not surprising that they often discussed their relative importance. This man seeks Jesus' view on the matter. This last exchange Jesus has with the leaders of Israel, in Mark's account, raises an issue important for his disciples. The incident illustrates how Jesus taught with an 'authority' that was different from the approach of the scribes (Mt 7:29). The scribes backed their interpretation by appealing to the authority of recognised interpreters; the response that Jesus gives is backed by his own authority. He underlines the commandment given in today's reading from Deuteronomy, familiar to all faithful Jews as part of their daily prayer: 'You must love the Lord with all your heart, soul, mind and strength' – in other words, with your whole being; to love anything in preference to the Lord is idolatry. Jesus is calling his hearers back to the radical faith and trust that so often finds expression in the Old Testament – especially in the prophets and the psalms – a faith and trust that was a true response to the God who had entered into covenant with the chosen people. Jesus goes on, however, to show great originality and wisdom, by linking the 'first' commandment with a 'second': 'You must love your neighbour as yourself' (Lev 19:18).

The Covenant was intended to make old Israel 'a light to the nations' – their life, shaped by the ways of God, learned through the covenant relationship, was to be an invitation to all peoples of the earth to find the one, true God – 'The Lord our God is the one Lord' – and the blessings life with God can bring. The Saviour links the two commandments under the rubric of 'love'. The love true believers have for fellow human beings is a love that has been learned from God.

The theme of 'love', so important to every human heart, was soon to emerge, we know, as the very heart of the Gospel, the good news that 'God so loved the world that he gave his only Son'. (For Paul, 'Love is the fulfilment of the Law', Rom 13:10; as we live 'in Christ', God's own love 'has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit', Rom 5:5. Similarly, according to John, a 'new commandment' rules our Christian life, 'Love one another just as I have loved you', Jn 13:34; indeed, John declares,

'God is love', 1 Jn 4:8). The response of the scribe and the praise it won from Jesus, 'You are not far from the kingdom', point towards this fulfilment. Mark is reminding us that not all the leaders of the people were closed to the message of Jesus. Is it not likely that this scribe was soon to share in the faith inaugurated by the Lord's Paschal Mystery? This faith is interpreted in the reading from Hebrews, where Christ's saving work is compared with the role of priests of the Old Testament. But there is also a great contrast. The old role ended with death, and was compromised by sinfulness. The Old Testament ideal of clinging to God with one's whole being must have seemed a daunting, almost impossible one; now however faith in the Paschal Mystery assures us that the risen Saviour - 'holy, innocent and uncontaminated', and 'made perfect for ever' - gives us a share in his life with the Father .

Let us pray for a better understanding of God's love and ask that it overflow in us to our neighbor.

From Today's Reading

First Reading: Deuteronomy 6:2-6. In this passage, Moses is giving his people, the Israelites, his last instructions shortly before his death. These instructions contain a mild warning coupled with the Jewish version of the First Commandment. In ancient Jewish thinking, earthly prosperity depended upon obeying God out of fear. The concept of obedience out love and gratitude was unknown to them, thus they were not a happy people, because love and obedience must come from a heart that is free of fear.

Responsorial Psalm 18:2-4, 47, 51. This Psalm, which was written hundreds of years after the time of Moses, picks up the idea of love and gratitude and gives glory to God for His many blessings. All of the psalms are reflections on events in the lives of the Jewish People, but we can identify with the psalms because of their universal nature and beauty.

Second Reading: Hebrews 7:23-28. The writer of Hebrews is telling us that we now have in Jesus Christ an eternal high priest that is God Himself. Therefore, we need not approach Him in fear because He was "one of us" and knows well the weaknesses of humanity.

STEWARDSHIP BULLETIN BITS: November 3, 2024 - 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

"And 'to love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself' is worth more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices." ~Mark 12:33

Of all the gifts that God gives us, the one He wants the most is our heart. He wants us to share out of our love for Him, not out of obligation. Using our talent in parish ministry and contributing money to support our parish mission is important, but it's more important to spend time in prayer with God daily and discern how He is calling us to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the visible ones, but the invisible ones like love, mercy and forgiveness.

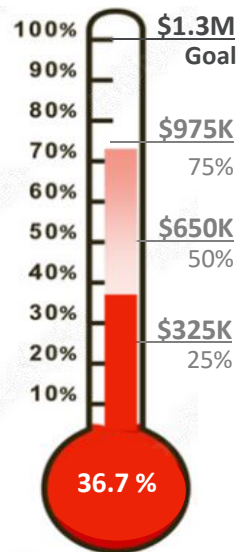

GRATITUDE & THANKS to all the parishioners who have generously pledged and donated to the Raise the Roof campaign. If you have received a mailed letter asking to confirm your intentions for our Gratitude board (have your name listed or remain anonymous), we kindly ask that you respond either by email to hfp-rtr@sasktel.net OR leave a voice message at 306-949-7736 before November 4th so that we can be certain to honour your wishes (there will only be names listed, no financial categories). If you have donated however have not received a letter, please be sure to let us know. Donations and pledges continue to be accepted at any time. THANK YOU!

POPE'S PRAYER INTENTION FOR NOVEMBER

For anyone who has lost a child ~ We pray that all parents who mourn the loss of a son or daughter find support in their community and receive peace and consolation from the Holy Spirit.

VATICAN II AND SYNODALITY

Dr. Catherine Clifford is a Canadian laywoman appointed as a delegate to the XVI Assembly of the Synod of Bishops. She is a professor of theology and director of the Centre for Vatican II and 21st Century Catholicism at the Université Saint Paul in Ottawa. A specialist in ecumenism and ecclesiology (the theology of church), Dr. Clifford has over two decades of experience as a member of Anglican-Roman Catholic and other ecumenical dialogues. Dr. Clifford will be visiting Regina soon after returning from the Synod. She will be speaking on how a renewed attention to the ancient practice of synodality is giving a renewed attention to the teaching of the Second Vatican Council. Wednesday, Nov. 27 at 7:00 pm at Campion College. All are welcome!

ARCHBISHOP'S APPEAL BULLETIN REFLECTION

Gospel: Mark 12:28b-34 When asked about the greatest commandment, Jesus emphasizes love—love for God and love for neighbour. This dual command is the cornerstone of our faith, calling us to live in harmony with one another. Contributing to the Archbishop's Appeal is a tangible expression of this love. Our donations support initiatives that care for the needy, educate the youth, and strengthen our parish communities. By uniting our resources, we demonstrate that love is not just a feeling but an actionable commitment to the well-being of others, fulfilling God's greatest commandment.

For more information, contact Nick Jesson, Archdiocesan Synod Coordinator, njesson@archregina.sk.ca

This year, Holy Family Parish's goal is $41,174.

Ryan Bast

My name is Ryan Bast, the current RCSD Deputy Chair and I am seeking re-election to the separate school board of trustees.

As an active member of Resurrection Parish and the Knights of Columbus, my faith drives my commitment to our Catholic education system.

With children in elementary, middle, and high school and a wife who is a dedicated classroom teacher, I understand the challenges and blessings of our schools.

St. John Paul II reminds us, "The future starts today, not tomorrow," and I carry this belief into my work as a trustee, advocating for the well-being of all students and staff.

I have participated in nearly every board engagement and board committee, and I will continue to advocate on crucial issues like class sizes, safety, wellness, and the protection of our Catholic education system, which is central to our faith and community.

I humbly ask for your support on November 13. God Bless.

Rob Bresciani

As a former student, parent of three, and grandparent, I've witnessed firsthand the profound impact of our Catholic system. It provides students with a strong faith-based foundation and also empowers them to become successful, contributing members of our community.

Over the next 4 years, we must prioritize collaboration with teachers, families, and parishes on critical issues such as: PROPER FUNDING, CLASS SIZE, TECHNOLOGY, TEACHER WORKLOAD, SUPPORT FOR OUR VULNERABLE and MAINTAINING OUR CATHOLIC IDENTITY!

My experience as a trustee and chairperson has equipped me to be a strong advocate for education. I pledge to continue championing the needs of students, teachers, and parents alike.

We must send the message to our government, "Education is an investment in our future rather than merely a line item on a budget".

Together, we can ensure that our students continue to receive the exceptional Catholic education they deserve.

On November 13th I ask for your support.

My name is Greg Fischer and I am running for Trustee in Regina Catholic Schools. I recently retired after 25 years of teaching Catholic Studies and serving as School Chaplain. My wife is also a teacher and our 2 kids attended RCSD. We are members of Resurrection Parish.

Greg Fischer

I am uniquely positioned to advocate for our schools since I have a wealth of recent classroom experience and the time to now commit fully to the task of Trustee.

I will advocate for:

- Class size and complexity
- Providing more supports for classrooms, especially for at-risk students
- Enhancing partnerships with our education and community partners
- Building wellness initiatives for students and teachers
- Safeguarding our Catholic distinctiveness
- Continuing to foster Truth and Reconciliation

Serving as Trustee will be my full time job. A vote for Greg Fischer is a vote for our kids, our teachers, our parents and our Catholic school community.

Hello, my name is Robert Kowalchuk. I am asking you to re-elect me to the Regina Catholic School Board.

I have had the privilege of serving as a teacher, principal, and superintendent for Regina Catholic Schools. These roles have given me a deep understanding of the inner workings of our schools, from the classroom to the boardroom.

I have also served past Board Chair and continue to serve as a school trustee's representative on provincial committees addressing teacher preparation and funding.

Experience has taught me the importance of fostering a strong, supportive, and faith-filled educational community where our students and staff feel valued and supported in our schools.

I have been an advocate for sufficient, equitable and sustainable funding for our schools. I have used my voice to advocate for funding, better opportunities for students and staff.

Together, we can build a future where our students are equipped not just with knowledge, but with the values and character they need to lead fulfilling lives.

Hello. My name is Darren Wilcox, and I am seeking your support for re-election as a Trustee for the Regina Catholic School Division on November 13.

Our Trustee team faced several unique issues. We navigated the COVID-19 Global Pandemic, going from closing schools to hybrid learning and gradually full attendance.

Darren Wilcox

At our first Trustee meeting we addressed the possible closing of a school and the purchase of a property to relocate our Central Education Centre (CEC). Issues that deserved further study and review, which we did.

Our team searched and found a new Director of Education in our first year, who under his leadership has strengthened our Division.

We successfully listed and sold three properties which we put towards the acquisition of our new Central Education Centre (CEC 2.0). Which recently opened this September.

I have always kept the main focus in my term as a Trustee that our students, teachers and staff are safe, programs are protected and we grow together.

Pilgrims of Hope: Together in Mission

Fr. Raymond Lafontaine, a priest of the Archdiocese of Montreal, has been present in the Archdiocese of Regina since May 2024. During this six-month study leave, he has visited numerous parishes and groups across the Archdiocese, meeting with priests, pastoral staff, and lay leaders, observing and learning from the different ways in which we “walk together” as a synodal church in mission. He will be serving as a table facilitator at the 2nd Synodal Assembly in Rome this October, and upon his return, he will lead us in a diocesan study day. What is the Spirit speaking to the Church through the Synod? How far have we progressed along the synodal path, and how can we deepen our commitment to walking together as we live the call to communion, participation, and mission? Fr. Raymond will have many lively stories to share, and so do each of us! Come and share in this conversation with friends and mission partners from across the diocese. Join us on Saturday, November 9, 2024. The study day begins at 9:30 am with a light breakfast and concludes at 1:00 pm at Resurrection Parish, 3155 Windsor Park Rd, Regina.

Free registration is requested to assist with planning. To register email mgurash@archregina.sk.ca or call 306-721-6734 by Wednesday, November 6.

Join “Companions in Hope: A Prayerful Space for Healing and Support

An Online Mental Health Prayer Group

Emmaus Mental Health Ministries warmly invites you to Companions in Hope, an online prayer group for those living with mental health challenges and the allies who accompany them. This is a sacred space of safety, acceptance, and healing, where we come together in prayer and reflection, offering support to one another on our journey toward hope.

Through the practice of Lectio Divina and other traditional contemplative prayers, we will reflect on God’s healing presence and our need for grace, fostering peace, consolation, and connection. Whether you’re seeking comfort in your mental health challenges, or encouragement as you accompany and support loved ones, you will find a quiet, peaceful community of prayer and support.

We meet on Zoom every second Thursday of the month. To Register: Please contact emmausmentalhealth@gmail.com to receive the Zoom link and join us in this journey of healing and hope.

The Archdiocese of Regina is located on Treaty 4 Territory, the traditional lands of the Nêhiyawak, Nahkawé, and Nakota, and homeland of the Dakota, Lakota, and Métis peoples.

Archbishop’s Appeal

When asked about the greatest commandment, Jesus emphasizes love—love for God and love for neighbour. This dual command is the cornerstone of our faith, calling us to live in harmony with one another. Contributing to the Archbishop’s Appeal is a tangible expression of this love. Our donations support initiatives that care for the needy, educate the youth, and strengthen our parish communities. By uniting our resources, we demonstrate that love is not just a feeling but an actionable commitment to the well-being of others, fulfilling God’s greatest commandment.

Dr. Clifford will be visiting Regina soon after returning from the Synod. Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"And to love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself is worth more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices." (Mark 12:33)

Of all the gifts that God gives us, the one He wants the most is our heart. He wants us to share out of our love for Him, not out of obligation. Using our talent in parish ministry and contributing money to support our parish mission is important, but it's more important to spend time in prayer with God daily and discern how He is calling us to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the visible ones, but the invisible ones like love, mercy and forgiveness.
